Moving to Step 3 of B.C.'s Restart Plan

With Step 3 of B.C.'s Restart plan, we are continuing our careful, gradual approach to bring us all back together.

Thanks to your efforts, we can now safely return to many of the things we did before the pandemic. By working together, we have bent our curve dramatically and brought cases down while returning to many of the activities we love.

We have made tremendous progress with our vaccination rollout and now have exceptionally strong immunization coverage across all eligible age demographics. This number is increasing every day as more British Columbians do their part and we are proving collectively that vaccines work.

All eligible British Columbians should be receiving an invitation to book their second dose appointment over the coming weeks. For those who have not received their first dose yet it's not too late – all Vancouver

Coastal Health vaccination clinics now welcome drop-in first dose appointments.

Vaccination progress has allowed us to move forward through these steps and getting dose two is how we can start to finally put the pandemic behind us. Public health is monitoring the data closely and will continue to take the appropriate steps to keep people and communities safe for as long as the pandemic lasts.

Moving to Step 3 is significant. Some people and businesses may not feel ready to take this step just yet and that's okay. Everyone is different and should go at their own pace – please respect other people's comfort levels and personal situations. Let's continue to get fully vaccinated, wash our hands and stay home when sick as we achieve this exciting milestone in our Restart plan – together.
